WELCOME AND CALL TO WORSHIP George Robertson

Overture on “O Come, All Ye Faithful”Arthur Harris

♠CONGREGATIONAL CAROL: No. 140 “O Come, All Ye Faithful” David Willcocks

♠INVOCATION

“Hark! the Herald Angels Sing” Dan Forrest

Hark! the herald angels sing, “Glory to the newborn King!
Peace on earth, and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled!”
Joyful, all ye nations rise, join the triumph of the skies,
With th’angelic host proclaim, “Christ is born in Bethlehem!”
Hark! the herald angels sing! “Glory to the newborn King!”

Christ, by highest heav’n adored, Christ the everlasting Lord!
Late in time, behold Him come, offspring of a virgin’s womb.
Veiled in flesh the Godhead see, hail th’incarnate Deity,
Pleased with us in flesh to dwell, Jesus, our Emmanuel,
Hark! the herald angels sing! “Glory to the newborn King!”

Hail the heav’n-born Prince of Peace, hail the Sun of Righteousness!
Light and life to all He brings, ris’n with healing in His wings.
Mild He lays His glory by, born that man no more may die,
Born to raise the sons of earth, born to give them second birth,
Hark! the herald angels sing! “Glory to the newborn King!”

“The Huron Carol” Dan Forrest

Jesus Ahatonhia. Gloria.

'Twas in the moon of wintertime, when all the birds had fled,
That mighty Gitchi Manitou (God, the Great Creator) sent angel choirs instead;
Before their light the stars grew dim, and wandering hunters heard the hymn:
“Jesus, your King, is born; Jesus is born, in excelsis gloria.”

Within a lodge of broken bark the tender babe was found,
A ragged robe of rabbit skin enwrapp'd His beauty round;
But as the hunter braves drew nigh, the angel song rang loud and high,
“Jesus, your King, is born; Jesus is born, in excelsis gloria.”

The earliest moon of wintertime is not so round and fair
As was the ring of glory on the helpless infant there.
The chiefs from far before Him knelt, with gifts of fur and beaver pelt,
“Jesus, your King, is born; Jesus is born, in excelsis gloria.”

O children of the forest free, O sons of Manitou,
The Holy Child of earth and heav'n is born today for you.
Come kneel before the radiant boy who brings you beauty, peace and joy.
“Jesus, your King, is born; Jesus is born, in excelsis gloria.”

Harry Wilson and Elijah Wells, soloists

The recurring phrase “Jesus Ahatonhia,” from Jean de Brebeuf’s original version, is Wendat/Huron for “Jesus is born.” The term “Gitchi Manitou” is the Algonquin translation for “God” throughout the Cree New Testament and is therefore an appropriate reference to God the Father.

♠ CONGREGATIONAL CAROL: “Joy to the World! The Lord Is Come” Mack Wilberg

“Infant Holy, Infant Lowly” Mack Wilberg

Infant Holy, Infant lowly, for His bed a cattle stall;
Oxen lowing, little knowing Christ the Babe is Lord of all.
Swiftly winging angels singing, nowells ringing, tidings bringing:
Christ the Babe is Lord of all.

Flocks were sleeping, shepherds keeping vigil till the morning new
Saw the glory, heard the story, tidings of a gospel true.
Thus rejoicing, free from sorrow, praises voicing, greet the morrow:
Christ the Babe was born for you.

CAROL MEDLEY Paul Roberts

“O Come, O Come, Emmanuel”

Faithline Youth Choir:

O come, O come, Emmanuel, and ransom captive Israel,
That mourns in lonely exile here, until the Son of God appear.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel.

✠ Congregation joins:

O come, thou Rod of Jesse, free thine own from Satan’s tyranny;
From depths of hell thy people save, and give them vict’ry o’er the grave.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel.

O come, thou Dayspring from on high, and cheer us by thy drawing nigh;
Disperse the gloomy clouds of night, and death’s dark shadows put to flight.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel.

O come, thou Key of David, come and open wide our heav’nly home;
Make safe the way that leads on high, and close the path to misery.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel.

“Angels We Have Heard on High”

Angels we have heard on high, sweetly singing o’er the plains,
And the mountains in reply echo back their joyous strains.
Gloria in excelsis Deo, Gloria in excelsis Deo.

Shepherds, why this jubilee? Why your joyous strains prolong?
Say what may the tidings be, which inspire your heav’nly song?
Gloria in excelsis Deo, Gloria in excelsis Deo.

Come to Bethlehem and see him whose birth the angels sing;
Come, adore on bended knee Christ the Lord, the newborn King.
Gloria in excelsis Deo, Gloria in excelsis Deo.

“O Holy Night”

Spirit & Song Children’s Choir:

O holy night! The stars are brightly shining;
It is the night of the dear Savior’s birth.
Long lay the world in sin and error pining,
Till He appeared and the soul felt its worth.
A thrill of hope, the weary world rejoices,
For yonder breaks a new and glorious morn!
Fall on your knees! O hear the angel voices!
O night divine, O night when Christ was born!
O night, O holy night, O night divine.

The Chancel Choir:

Truly He taught us to love one another;
His law is love and his gospel is peace.
Chains shall He break, for the slave is our brother,
And in His name all oppression shall cease.
Sweet hymns of joy in grateful chorus raise we;
Let all within us praise His holy name.
Christ is the Lord! O praise His name forever!
His pow'r and glory evermore proclaim! His pow'r and glory evermore proclaim!

✠“Go, Tell It on the Mountain

Go, tell it on the mountain, over the hills and ev'rywhere;
Go, tell it on the mountain that Jesus Christ is born.

While shepherds kept their watching o'er silent flocks by night,
Behold, throughout the heavens there shone a holy light.

The shepherds feared and trembled when, lo! above the earth
Rang out the angel chorus that hailed our Savior's birth.

Down in a lowly manger our humble Christ was born,
And God sent us salvation that blessed Christmas morn.

“Gloria, Our Savior Found Us” Cliff Duren

For all of the seeking through valleys and hills
Of shepherds and wise men for glory revealed
Seems like the greatest journey of all
Was Heaven now searching for the hearts of the lost.

*Gloria! Our Savior found us. Gloria! O night divine!
Through the darkness He won't relent. Mercy so great will find a way. Gloria!*

For all of the riches laid at His feet,
The best we could offer to honor a King,
Seems like the greatest treasure of all
Was found in a manger; God come to us!

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost,
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end!

WORSHIP OF GOD WITH THE GIFTS OF GOD

OFFERTORY ANTHEM: “Amen”Jester Harrison, Larnelle Harris

Amen, amen, amen.

Listen to my story: it's a story 'bout my Jesus.
See the little baby. He's wrapped in a manger on Christmas morning.
See Him at the seashore talkin' to the fisherman, and He's makin' them disciples.
Ridin' through Jerusalem, wavin' palm branches in pomp and splendor.
See Him in the garden, prayin' to His Father, in deepest sorrow.
Went before Pilate, then they crucified Him, but, He rose on Easter!

Amen, amen, amen!

FESTIVAL of CAROLS BROADCAST

A recording of Festival of Carols will be broadcast on WKNO television on Christmas Eve at 7:00 p.m. and on Christmas Day at 10:00 a.m. and Midnight.

It will also be shown on WKNO2 on Christmas Day at 7:00 p.m.

Visit youtube.com/2pcmusic to view tonight's program, Handel's Messiah, and more online.

THE MEANING of CHRISTMAS

The carols tonight focus on the unique identity, majestic divinity, and saving work of Jesus Christ. They basically tell the story of the gospel in three words:

Cradle: The cradle of Christmas proves that God is with us—Emmanuel. We are not alone in this world. We are not alone in our guilt, shame, and struggle. We are not alone when we walk through the valley of the shadowlands—even death itself. The little baby in the feeding trough in the cave in Bethlehem is the incarnate God. He came to live a life of perfection that we never could and to die a sacrificial death to free us from guilt, shame, sin, and death.

Cross: These carols remind us that the gospel story continues with another transforming event. The cross of Calvary proves that God is for us and not against us. We no longer have to work to earn His favor and acceptance; the cross serves as proof of God's grace and love. Jesus endured our sin, our judgment, our hell, and our death on that cross so that, by believing in Him, we might enjoy forgiveness, acceptance, heaven, and eternal life.

Crown: The good news gets even better. These carols remind us that Jesus rose from the dead and ascended into heaven to rule and reign. He is now crowned with glory and honor. The crown reminds us that God will ensure that we arrive safely home to His glorious kingdom. Jesus will triumph over all of His and our enemies. Our future is bright indeed. At Advent, we also celebrate that Jesus is coming again to make all things new.

Have you gazed upon that cradle, that cross, and that crown? Throughout this Advent season, let us worship our Savior, born in a cradle; the Son of God, slain on a cross; and the King of Glory, who has secured our way home to the Father's house!
