

Choral Scholar Intern Program for College Students

The goal of the Choral Scholar Intern Program at Second Presbyterian Church is to use the ongoing work of the music ministry as a training ground for college students pursuing careers in church music and/or music education. Only mature students majoring or minoring in music/music education/voice will be considered for the program.

- Choral Scholars will learn the various responsibilities of a multi-staff music ministry and will have opportunities to work with all as opportunities occur.
- Will receive training in rehearsal technique, rehearsal planning, liturgical planning, and repertoire planning for a multi-faceted music ministry.
- Will be given the opportunity to participate in worship services throughout the year up to six concerts with members of the Memphis Symphony Orchestra and will be expected to participate in Sunday worship services and Wednesday evening choir rehearsals.
- Will be given the opportunity to work with the faculty of the Second Conservatory of Music and possibly serve as teaching assistants in this ministry.
- Compensation is $10 per hour up to 10 hours per week.
